

kā-wīci-pimohtēmāt

Professional Practice Group

Indigenous Nursing

kā-wīci-pimohtēmāt

(pronounced gaah-weechi-bimohte-maat)

'a person who walks with others on their journey'

kā-wīci-pimohtēmāt is a group of Indigenous (First Nation, Métis, and Inuit) nurses and nursing students whose goal is to educate, collaborate, and enable all Saskatchewan nurses to work together to address the current health disparities between Indigenous and non-Indigenous peoples, and to facilitate a platform for direct communication between the College of Registered Nurses of Saskatchewan (CRNS) and the Indigenous nurses in this province.

See our website for membership information and a curated list of resources.

<https://indigenousnursesppg.ca>

We meet 4 times a year, 3rd Tuesday of Jan/April/June/Oct 7-8pm.

What We Do

- promote professional growth in members
- promote growth and support (mentorship) to Indigenous undergraduate and graduate nursing students and nurses
- advance recruitment and retention of Indigenous nurses
- advance the wellness of Indigenous peoples
- provide opportunities for continuing competency related to equitable and culturally safe nursing care for Indigenous peoples
- identify objectives that contribute to CRNS strategic endpoints
- facilitate the integration of the Truth and Reconciliation Calls to Action #18-24
- review expert literature and policies related to Indigenous peoples
- collaborate with Canadian Indigenous Nurses Association (CINA)

UNIVERSITY OF SASKATCHEWAN
College of Nursing
NURSING.USASK.CA

