

kā-wīci-pimohtēmāt Professional Practice Group
www.indigenousnursesppg.ca

Nurse
maskihkîwiskwêw

ALL NURSES INVITED TO CELEBRATE INDIGENOUS NURSES DAY

APRIL 10, 2026
1:00 - 4:00 p.m.
Visiting 12:30- 1p.m.

Location: Good Medicine People Space
4th Floor E-Wing Health Sciences Building
University of Saskatchewan

Guest Speaker: Louise Halfe

Louise Halfe is a Cree poet, Knowledge Keeper, and social worker. She has published four books of poetry, winning won multiple awards, most recently appointed to the Order of Canada. Louise will share her teachings related to living a good life and heart care.

Guest Speaker: Gaye Hanson

Gaye Hanson is a Cree Métis nurse and a spirit-led helper who holds a treasured shamanic tradition. She will share her knowledge and teachings related to heart health and wellness (physical, emotional, mental, and spiritual).

Refreshments will be provided Door prizes
Hybrid event: in person and zoom
Contact dawn.beaudry@usask.ca

In person event is sold out.
Use QR code to register for virtual event:

